Data protection statement

All data is securely held by the Alumni Association and will be treated confidentially and with sensitivity for the benefit of Bournemouth University and its members. The data is available to our schools, academic and administrative departments, recognised alumni societies, sports and other clubs associated with the University, and to agents contracted by the University for particular alumni-related projects.

Data is used for a full range of alumni activities, including the sending of University publications, the promotion of benefits and services available to alumni, notification of alumni events and programmes involving academic and administrative departments. Data may also be used in fundraising programmes which might include an element of direct marketing organised by BU.

Under the terms of the 1998 Data Protection Act you have the right to object to the use of your data for any of the above purposes.

If you have any queries please contact the Alumni Association on +44 (0)1202 961082, or email: alumni@bournemouth.ac.uk

Graduation doesn't mean goodbye

The day you leave BU you automatically become a member of the Alumni Association. You are entitled to a range of benefits and services and we hope you'll continue to take advantage of them long after you graduate. Make sure you keep in touch: keep us up to date with your latest postal and email addresses on the website www.bournemouth.ac.uk/alumni or by email at alumni@bournemouth.ac.uk

Staying in touch

Friend Finder – Ever find yourself thinking “I wonder what happened to my BU mates?” Fill in the Friend Finder form on the website.

Regular news – We'll keep you updated with a free copy of The Talbot magazine every year and regular email newsletters. If you're doing something interesting, why not send us a contribution?

Reunions – We arrange reunions and can help you to arrange your own events too. Visit our website for advice and the latest news and events.

At work – Do you remember how hard it was to find a placement or a graduate job? If your organisation has opportunities for current students or your fellow alumni please contact the Graduate Employment Service on +44 (0)1202 965266 or visit www.bournemouth.ac.uk/careers/employers

International students – we can help put you in contact with other BU graduates based in your home country. Email us for details.

Get active – If you'd like to start up your own regional, sports or activity-related group, we can help you know.

Get profiled – If you'd like your profile used to promote the university, get in touch.

University services

Careers – Unsure about your next steps? The Graduate Employment Service can help you for up to three years after you graduate, offering friendly advice on looking for a job, further study and all things career related. For details visit www.bournemouth.ac.uk/careers

Business start-up support – BU has a dedicated business incubator facility and a free business start-up programme Business Manager which is open to BU's alumni. Both are aimed at those individuals who are looking for support to start their own business. Contact Services to Business on +44 (0)1202 961961 or visit www.bournemouth.ac.uk/s2b

Library – BU alumni can use the library facilities for reference. For details of the discounts available on other membership options, see www.bournemouth.ac.uk/library/using/visitors

Further study discounts – Alumni are entitled to a 5% discount on further study at BU, so along with the 5% early payment discount, you could save yourself 10% on your next course!

Sports facilities – Various discounts are available on sports facilities and membership options. For details, see www.bournemouth.ac.uk/sports

Accommodation and conference facilities – BU halls of residence are available to rent during the summer holidays and our alumni are entitled to a 10% discount on room hire. Details from the Conference Office on conferencing@bournemouth.ac.uk.

The Bournemouth University Foundation

Our charitable foundation gives you a chance to support both the University and its future students. The Foundation funds a range of activities from scholarships and prizes to the provision of new and better study and recreation facilities. All are designed to enhance the student experience at BU.
